It's time to Back Young Britain

Backing Young Britain is bringing organisations from the private, public and voluntary sectors together, to create new opportunities for young people, and ensure that their valuable skills and experience aren't wasted.

Young people need that first break; and if they get it, they'll pour their ambition and motivation into your business. With over 2 million UK businesses*, every single opportunity can make a difference. Hundreds of organisations both large and small are Backing Young Britain and getting the best talent for their business.

By giving a young person a break you will be able to:

- Address skills gaps
- Access a range of Government support
- Build a workforce for the future
- Send a positive message to the local community.

How you can Back Young Britain

We can help you to:

1. Offer an Apprenticeship
2. Give a young person a job
3. Provide experience of work
